

Raymond Lim

Raymond LIM is Head of Customer Services Asia Pacific (AP) in the Airbus Commercial Aircraft business.

Previously, Raymond was Airbus Chief Representative of Malaysia (2017-2023), Managing Director of Airbus Customer Services in Malaysia (2014-2023), and Sepang Aircraft Engineering (2019-2023). Between 2017 and 2019, Raymond was in parallel the Managing Director of Airbus Helicopters Malaysia.

From 2012 to 2014, Raymond was based in Hamburg as the Head of the Satair Group post-merger integration Program Management Office (PMO). In 2008, Raymond was the General Manager of Hua-Ou Aviation Training and Support Centre, an Airbus joint venture providing training and spare services in China. By 2011, he assumed additional responsibility as Head of Shared Resources at Airbus China, covering general procurement, IT, facilities and security. Prior to his Airbus career, Raymond spent 17 years serving multiple roles related to aircraft engineering and maintenance, materials management, environment, flight operations and security, in a regional airline trade organisation and in a major airline.

For his contributions to the French economy, Raymond was awarded in 2022, the Chevalier (Knight) L'Ordre National du Mérite by the President of France.

Raymond is a Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society (UK) and is registered with the United Kingdom Engineering Council. He is also a Chartered Manager (CMgr) and Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute (UK). He sits on various Boards. Raymond holds Master degrees in Materials Engineering from the University of Surrey, and in Business Administration (with Distinction) from the University of East London. He was an International Federation of Airworthiness (IFA) Len Gore Scholar (1993/1994) and an ASEAN Scholar at the Raffles Junior College in Singapore (1987/1988).

